Beach Safety for Sandestin

Sandestin adheres to a uniform code system for swimming safety that is also presently used in Walton County. The flag colors and their meanings are as follows:

- Green - Conditions are favorable for swimming.
- Yellow - Use caution when venturing into the water.
- One Red - Swimming not advised. Knee high, too high.
- Two Red - Water is closed to public use, subject to fine.
- Purple - Marine pests present (jellyfish, stingrays or dangerous fish)

Tram Service for Sandestin

Trams run on two continuous loops departing each stop every 30 minutes. Beach Express runs continuously from The Grand Sandestin to the beach only.

- Village route to Beach and back
- Bayside route to Beach and back
- Beach Express (seasonal)

For Tram hours, please download the Sandestin app or ask the concierge.

Proper I.D. required to ride tram. Hours of operation subject to change without notice.
